

Western Hills Guest Ranch

LOCATION:

Western Hills Guest Ranch, a resort ranch, is located one hour east of Tulsa, Oklahoma. The resort is located on a peninsula in the 2,300 acre Sequoyah State Park on 19,000-acre Fort Gibson Lake. Shuttle service is available (fee) to/from Tulsa Airport.

ACCOMMODATIONS:

Ninety-five hotel rooms, three theme suites, and six poolside cabana suites are available in a two-story ranch at the resort. Rooms have either poolside view with balconies/patios or beautiful panoramic views of the lake. Forty-four cottages, some with kitchenettes, are located within walking distance of the lodge. A family reunion complex "The Bunkhouse", sleeps up to forty-six people, has its own meeting room and kitchen. There is also a restaurant and lounge in the lodge.

RECREATION:

Western Hills features a championship eighteen hole golf course with a pro shop, two lighted tennis courts, horseback trail rides, hayrides, water sports, tram rides, volleyball, hiking, fishing, etc. Recreation programs (supervised with separate children's activities) feature Lil' Wrangler program, scavenger hunts, fishing derbies, arts and crafts, etc. Three Forks Nature Center run by a Park Naturalist houses many different species of Oklahoma wildlife, including a bald eagle. Three Forks also offers seasonal instructional programs such as Astronomy, taxidermy, etc. Paradise Cove Marina located within the park, features paddleboats and pontoon boat rental and tours around the lake area. Area attractions include The Five-Civilized Tribe Museum, Azalea Gardens, Cherokee Heritage Center, Ft. Gibson Stockade, and the Illinois River.

DINING:

Outdoor meal functions are our specialty. We can arrange for a group Chuckwagon(hayride) cookout. Sing-a-long around a campfire or listen to a naturalist presentation in a wooded secluded area. Parties can be poolside or on the tree-shaded point of the peninsula. Barbecue and steak are specialties of the Calico Crossing Restaurant. Carry out service is also available for a "Picnic in the Park." You can also relax late in the Black Jack Saloon.

MEETING/BANQUET FACILITIES:

Western Hills offers more than 11,000 square feet of meeting space. Sequoyah Hall seats up to 600 people or is flexible to become four meeting rooms. Five additional rooms located throughout the lodge can easily accommodate your group. Whether your objective is intensive or a meeting of a mix of business and pleasure, Western Hills has the facilities, services, and professional staff to ensure you accomplish your objective.
